1. Purpose

This Acceptable Use Policy defines prohibited activities and usage standards for all visitors, registered users, affiliates, moderators, and other persons accessing the Platform.

2. Prohibited Conduct

Users may not exploit, probe, or attack the Platform; upload malware; attempt privilege escalation; reverse engineer protected features except where non-waivable law allows it; or use automation in a way that burdens or damages the service.

Users may not use the Platform to facilitate fraud, identity theft, unlawful fundraising, money laundering, sanctions evasion, copyright infringement, abuse, threats, hate speech, harassment, adult exploitation, or publication of unlawful material.

Users may not impersonate the Company, falsely claim affiliation, manipulate testimonials, create fake user accounts, or attempt to bypass moderation, payment controls, or account restrictions.

3. Community and Communication Rules

If the Platform includes chats, comments, group rooms, mentoring spaces, or support communities, users must interact respectfully and may not post confidential third-party information without authorization.

4. Enforcement

The Company may investigate suspected violations and may remove content, suspend sessions, restrict functions, terminate accounts, preserve evidence, or cooperate with legal authorities where appropriate.
